WEB EXTRA: KAKODKAR'S INTERVIEW

HEMANT PITHWA

"The deal is very unambiguous"

Chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission Anil Kakodkar, in an interview with Managing Editor Raj Chengappa, explains why the Indo-US nuclear deal is "satisfactory" and how it would help India in the long run. Kakodkar was closely involved with the negotiations and had earlier expressed his reservations about the deal. He had complained that the US was constantly shifting the goal posts, and that India should be cautious.

STATESCAN: BANGALORE

Networked City

Bangalore is witnessing a spring of social networking websites among those aged 15 to 35 years. Sites like Orkut, Facebook, and Minglebox have taken over the lives of youngsters and those still young at heart. People make friends with those of similar interests and maintain relations in India and the world over, says Nirmala Ravindran.

Retracing Steps

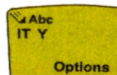

Chabbewal welcomed Monica Bedi, who is on bail after years of imprisonment, with enthusiasm. She is trying to win back public sympathy by playing the girl-next-door and making it seem as if she were the victim of the time—an attempt to refurbish her image for Bollywood, says Assistant Editor Ramesh Vinayak.
