

▶ SPINEL AND DIAMOND BIB NECKLACE

Jewellery lovers can log in for AstaGuru's upcoming 'Heirloom Collectibles' auction to be held in late October 2025. While it will feature exceptional works of fine jewellery with diamonds, emeralds, rubies, and other precious gemstones, the highlight is an exquisite spinel and diamond bib necklace with a pair of matching earrings. The border of the necklace is lined with diamonds, forming three circular medallions in the centre of the necklace, with spinels creating floral motifs. The earrings mimic the floral motifs of the necklace.

◀ PATEK PHILIPPE, REF. 1518, STAINLESS STEEL, 1943

Here's a chance to bid for the world's most desirable vintage wristwatch—one of only four of its kind! This was the very first Patek Philippe Ref 1518 launched in 1941 to ever be produced in stainless steel as indicated by the number one engraved on the caseback. It was last auctioned in 2016 for CHF 11,002,000, becoming the most expensive wristwatch ever sold at an auction at the time, and the first to break the eight-figure barrier. To this day, it's still the most expensive vintage Patek Philippe wristwatch sold at an auction. Will it break its own record in November?
