

WEATHERING THE TARIFF STORM

WITH INDIAN EXPORTERS reeling under the 50% tariff imposed by the US, hopes are pinned on a relief and support package from the government. Commerce and Industry Minister Piyush Goyal and Reserve Bank of India officials have met exporters to address their concerns. Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman has said the government is preparing a comprehensive package. Exporters are hopeful of a positive outcome with India and the US once again reaffirming commitment to a trade deal. Until then, it remains to be seen how they weather this storm.

ZYDUS WELLNESS BUYS COMFORT CLICK

AT A TICKET size of ₹2,800 crore, Zydus Wellness, known for brands like Complan, Sugar Free, Glucon-D, Nycil, Everyuth and Nutralite, has made its first overseas acquisition. The purchase of UK-based Comfort Click will give it a presence in the growing segments of vitamins, minerals and supplements. With this, Zydus' international revenue, currently at 3% of total, will increase to 40%. At 2x of revenue, picking up Comfort Click, a digital-first healthcare brand with a strong presence in Europe, is expected to offer cross-selling synergies.

LIQUID SPICE

AJAY SINGH'S BUDGET carrier SpiceJet has been navigating headwinds over the years. Singh is trying to manoeuvre the airline as it reported a Q1FY26 net loss of ₹234 crore amidst growing competition, supply chain issues, and geopolitical challenges. Singh has unlocked fresh liquidity to support the airline's ongoing restructuring through a settlement with Carlyle Aviation Partners and will gain cash maintenance reserves worth $79.6 million for future aircraft and engine upkeep, along with $9.9 million in maintenance credits to offset lease obligations.
