The trend is the same in Mumbai, the country's traditional luxury market and also the most mature one for large-scale projects. Real estate major Prestige Group is banking on the market's unwavering demand for premium homes and has launched three new luxury and uber-luxury projects in the prime locations of South Mumbai and Bandra. Prestige Ocean Towers in Marine Lines offers uber-luxury four-bedroom sea-view residences with a starting price of ₹25 crore. Designed by Fosters & Partners and Architect Hafeez Contractor, these swanky adobes have an expanse of 2,500 sq. ft carpet area, overlooking the Arabian Sea and the Queen's Necklace (Marine Drive). Prestige Dafodils is a boutique uber luxury project in Pali Hill, Bandra West; here, the residences range from 2,300 sq. ft to 3,800 sq. ft, with an extravagant penthouse spreads over 9,000 sq. ft. Each four-bedroom residence is priced between ₹30 crore and ₹50 crore. And its third project, Prestige Jasdan Classic, located in Mahalaxmi, is expected to be delivered next year. The Bengaluru-headquartered firm, according to Swaroop Anish, Executive Director & CEO, Residential, Prestige Group, is gearing up to launch another uber-luxury development in Worli soon.

Bengaluru is also making significant strides; post-Covid, the Silicon Valley of India is also rapidly emerging as a luxury home market. "As homebuyers are now willing to move away from the city centre in search of larger premium homes, it has become convenient to develop bigger projects in the suburbs, which require large land parcels," Anish tells BT. In Bengaluru, Prestige has lined up several such projects with houses priced between ₹2.5 crore and ₹4 crore.

THE DEMAND FOR luxury homes extends beyond just the top three markets. According to CBRE India, luxury homes have gained traction across the top seven residential home markets in India—MMR,
