

3

Shop till you Drop

- ▶ The purchasing power of Indians is rising due to high-income professionals, successful start-ups, Esops, share prices, etc.
- ▶ The number of aspirational consumers is also growing due to awareness created through social, print and electronic media
- ▶ Seeing this, several global luxury brands are reviving their interest in India and seeking high-end retail spaces
- ▶ Luxury malls in India are also increasing their retail spaces to accommodate new launches and expansions

PHOTO BY HARDIK CHHABRA

PHOTO BY HARDIK CHHABRA

1 MAXIMUM LUXE

The Palladium in Mumbai was the city's first mall dedicated to luxury brands

2 CAPITAL'S CHANAKYA

The Chanakya, the second luxury mall in Delhi, is a massive 188,000 sq. ft

3 HOUSE OF BRANDS

Hermès Mumbai at the Jio World Plaza in Mumbai, a 750,000 sq. ft destination

4 THE PIONEER

The DLF Emporio in Delhi started off the trend of luxury retail spaces in India