

↑ SITARA HIMALAYA

88 |

► Set amidst the beauty of the Himalayas, Sitara Himalaya is a private sanctuary with just 10 guestrooms. At an altitude of 8,200 ft, 13 km north of Manali, Sitara Himalaya offers an intimate atmosphere like visiting someone's home. Which is not surprising since it is an extension to the private home of Anita Lal, founder of lifestyle brand Good Earth. Think Tibetan rugs, blue and white china, hand painted murals, and vases—the decor is to behold. The retreat is the perfect place to cuddle up with a book, go for long walks and generally slow down the pace of life. The property is a part of Relais & Chateaux group, known for exceptional boutique properties and great service.

PRICE ₹65,000 per night for a minimum of a three-night stay, including all meals

↓ RAMBHA PALACE, ODISHA

► Rambha Palace, on the banks of the Chilika Lake, is a beautifully restored royal retreat. Built in 1792, it took over six years to restore and convert it into a boutique hotel with 16 suites. Step into the porch, and you're transported to an era bygone. An 18th-century billiards table occupies pride of place in the central room. Elaborate lounges, French chandeliers, and restored 18th-century furniture add to the charm. Start your mornings at the poolside gym and relax at the spa which has open-to-sky bathtubs. The hotel's team of chefs can conjure up a vast array of cuisines—from local Odia fare to Japanese and Thai.

PRICE ₹30,000 per night, plus taxes
