WITHOUT A DOUBT,

2024 has been a remarkable year for Jyoti Deshpande. Jio Studios, the media platform and content business of Reliance Industries, which she oversees, was responsible for more than half of India's net box-office collections of ₹2,000 crore.

The year began with the success of Article 370, as Laapataa Ladies emerged as India's official entry for the Oscars. Nothing, however, has surpassed Stree 2, a comedy horror film that was released on August 15 and has grossed over ₹600 crore.

"The acumen lies in greenlighting the right project," she says. She incubated the business, and in six years, it has produced 150 films and
