

BUILDING AGILITY AND RESILIENCE

AS CHAIRPERSON OF Piramal Pharma Ltd (PPL), Nandini Piramal says she has worked towards cultivating a culture of innovation and diversity. “We have expanded globally, enhanced our manufacturing capabilities, and strengthened our focus on the contract development and manufacturing organisation (CDMO) business and the consumer product division,” she says.

Piramal believes in empowering her teams. “My ongoing focus is on building a resilient, forward-thinking organisation that can compete with global pharma brands,” she says.

Leading a company in the rapidly changing pharma sector comes with its challenges. She identifies several hurdles, including regulatory changes, supply chain disruptions, and shifts in market demand. “These challenges require quick adaptation,” she says. “To address them, we have strengthened our operational resilience, invested in technology, and cultivated a culture of agility.”

Under her, PPL has seen improvement in key financial metrics. It reported revenues of ₹8,171 crore in FY24, a 15% growth year-on-year, while its Ebitda increased

PHOTO BY MANDAR DEODHAR

NANDINI PIRAMAL

44, Chairperson, Piramal Pharma Ltd

by 61% to ₹1,372 crore.

PPL's success relies on a commitment to long-term, sustainable growth, says Piramal. “Our key strategies are continuous investment in innovation, both in our R&D and digital capabilities, and maintaining a patient-first approach in everything we do,” she says, adding that PPL has also diversified its portfolio across complex generics, CDMO, and consumer healthcare to remain agile and meet evolving market needs. BT

— BY NEETU CHANDRA SHARMA

78 |

ADVICE TO YOUR YOUNGER SELF

Trust the process, embrace challenges, and focus on building strong teams

MANTRA FOR CHALLENGES

You are what your deep driving desire is. As your desire is, so is your will. As your will is, so is your deed. As your deed is, so is your destiny

NAYANTHARA

40, Actor & Entrepreneur

MAKING AN IMPACT

IT'S NOT JUST the success in films that defines Nayanthara, who is popularly called ‘Lady Superstar’ in the South.

Known to be wise with her money, her film production house Rowdy Pictures—which she set up with her husband and filmmaker Vignesh Shivan—released the critically acclaimed Koozhangal, a Tamil film in 2021.

The couple has also invested in a bunch of companies including skincare brand 9Skin, female hygiene player Femi9, event ticketing firm Ticket9, apart from The Divine Foods and Chai Waale. Often, Nayanthara has spoken of “making a positive difference to people through her businesses” and keeps an eye on the quality of brands she is involved in. Managing a career in films is not easy and being an entrepreneur as well is tough. Nayanthara has done both. BT

— BY KRISHNA GOPALAN

WHY SHE MATTERS

She is not only one of the highest paid female actors in the South, but also strives to make a positive impact on people through her businesses

PHOTO BY MILIND SHELTE