

SUMAN MISHRA
46, CEO, Mahindra Last Mile
Mobility

THE LONE RANGER

'I MUST STRIVE to excel in every role'. Suman Mishra embraces this principle to adeptly tackle the challenges present in the male-dominated automotive industry. Mishra, who has been with Mahindra for the past nine years, is committed to "delivering tangible impact". Under her leadership, Mahindra Last Mile Mobility saw fourfold growth in the past two years. This year the firm unveiled e-Zeo, a compact EV vehicle that aims to penetrate the ICE-dominated sub-two-tonne small commercial vehicle market. She is also spearheading IFC's ₹600 crore investment in Mahindra Last Mile Mobility. BT

— BY ASTHA ORIEL

ADVICE TO YOUR YOUNGER SELF

Life will work itself out. Don't be so worried. Enjoy the journey

MANTRA TO NAVIGATE CHALLENGES

Managing myself is what helps me manage the organisation

TIME FOR BUSINESS

LEADING A DISCRETIONARY goods business in these times is not easy. Yet, Suparna Mitra has steered Titan's watches & wearables division to surpass ₹5,000 crore in sales (and ₹6,000 crore in consumer revenue) in FY24. To stay ahead of the curve, she used her learnings from the pandemic. One of her strategic moves was to divide the business under three verticals—mainline analogue, premium analogue and wearables. "In the past

PHOTO BY HARDIK CHHABRA

SUPARNA MITRA
56, CEO, Watches & Wearables Division,
Titan Company

A JOURNEY OF RESILIENCE

UPASANA TAKU
45, Co-founder, MobiKwik

PHOTO BY HARDIK CHHABRA

UPASANA TAKU, Co-founder and CFO of payments service provider MobiKwik, stands as a prominent figure in India's fintech landscape, steering one of the nation's leading digital payments platforms with resilience, passion, and a sharp strategic vision. Her path, from modest beginnings to the forefront of digital finance, underscores the power of perseverance—a theme she often highlights in recounting her experiences.

A pivotal moment in Taku's life came while pursuing a Master's degree in the US. Despite being accepted into prestigious institutions such as Stanford University, financial

WHY SHE MATTERS

Under her leadership, MobiKwik has achieved profitability and also got a nod from markets regulator Sebi for a public offering