

DOUGH-RE-MI For Sindhu Gangadharan, baking is therapeutic, providing a sense of calm and mindfulness

| THE GOOD LIFE DOWNTIME |

BAKER EXTRAORDINAIRE

For Sindhu Gangadharan, MD of SAP Labs India; Head, Customer Innovation Services, SAP; and Chairperson, Nasscom, baking is akin to life—having a structure, but adjusting when needed

BY NIDHI SINGAL

M ONDAY MORN- INGS ARE typically dreaded by many,
but 48-year-old Sindhu Gangad-
haran, MD, SAP
Labs India; Head, Customer Innovation Services, SAP; and Chairperson, Nasscom, defies this norm with flair. She looks forward to her Monday meetings with an array of homemade delicacies, often baked by her for the team to enjoy.

An expert baker today, Gangadharan first started baking when she was working at the SAP headquarters in Wall-