

What's Your Legacy?

102 |

Property or mutual funds? Which one will create a legacy that can withstand the impact of inflation and grow your wealth? The choice depends on your risk tolerance and financial goals

BY NAVNEET DUBEY

NOIDA-BASED COUPLE KRISHNA (42) and Neerja Pandey (40) were enjoying their evening tea on the balcony of their 2BHK apartment recently, when their conversation turned to how they could secure the financial future of their son Abhinav, who turned 15 recently. The couple wanted to build a corpus for their child, but with minimal disruption to their current lifestyle.

After the jolt of the Covid-19 pandemic, people are increasingly prioritising future planning, especially for their children. And like the Pandey's, many in their mid-40s are looking at legacy planning.

