

● Bajaj Auto: 53.71%
 ● Honda Motorcycle & Scooter India (HMSI): 10.84% ● Yamaha: 35.45%

THE PULSAR CHARM

► Bajaj Auto, through its popular Pulsar 150 model, currently leads in the 125-150 cc segment in FY24
 ► Japanese automaker Yamaha comes second with a 35.45% market share

● TVS Motor Company: 29.81% ● Bajaj Auto Ltd: 26.91% ● Honda Motorcycle & Scooter India (HMSI): 18.47% ● Yamaha: 17.33% ● Hero Moto-Corp: 5.30% ● Suzuki: 2.12% ● Kawasaki: 0.06%

TVS INCHES AHEAD

► In the 150 cc and above segment, TVS has a slight lead with almost 30% market share in FY24 ► But the competition is intense here as Bajaj Auto is a close second with about 27% share, and Honda has an 18% market share

● Bajaj Auto Ltd: 44.25% ● Royal Enfield: 39.29%
 ● Hero MotoCorp: 15.72% ● Kawasaki: 0.45%
 ● Honda Motorcycle & Scooter India: 0.15%
 ● Piaggio Vehicles Pvt Ltd: 0.14%

BAJAJ RIDES ON PARTNERSHIPS

► Bajaj Auto, through its partnership with European brands KTM and Triumph, has taken pole position in the above 350 cc segment in FY24

● Royal Enfield: 90.43% ● Honda Motorcycle & Scooter India: 5.05% ● Classic Legends: 3.66% ● TVS Motor Company: 0.68%
 ● Kawasaki: 0.15% ● Yamaha: 0.03%

BULLET LEADS THE WAY

► The 250-350 cc segment is the fastest-growing one in the two-wheeler industry because of premiumisation ► Royal Enfield's Bullet remains the highest-selling model in this segment, where the company has a whopping 90% share