

ECONOMY • STATISTICS

BIG DATA, BIG OVERHAUL

INDIA'S STATISTICS HAVE BEEN UNDER A CLOUD, WITH THE IMF RECENTLY GIVING THE COUNTRY'S GDP DATA A 'C' RATING. THE GOVERNMENT IS UNDERTAKING A MASSIVE REVISION. WILL THIS REFLECT GROWTH MORE ACCURATELY?

BY SURABHI

THE DATA DEBATE

India uses the 2011-12 base year for macroeconomic statistics like GDP and IIP and 2012 for CPI

The IMF's Article IV statement gave a 'C' to India's national accounts due to outdated base year