

1

INDIA-UK COMPREHENSIVE ECONOMIC AND TRADE AGREEMENT

- ▶ Signed in July 2025, likely to be operationalised later this year
- ▶ Bilateral trade at $56 billion, to be doubled by 2030

What it brings for India	What's at stake for India
Duty-free access for 99% of India's exports to the UK	Does not give adequate mobility access to India's IT professionals
Sensitive sectors of dairy, vegetables, apples, cooking oils, oats protected	Lacks provisions for implementation of CBAM (Carbon Border Adjustment Mechanism) by the UK
Deeper market access in IT, financial services, education, healthcare; easier mobility and visa for skilled professionals	Concerns over dilution of India's compulsory licensing norms in pharma
Phased liberalisation for automobiles

2

INDIA- EFTA TRADE AND ECONOMIC PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT

- ▶ Operationalised in October 2025 after being signed in March 2024
- ▶ Bilateral trade is pegged at $23 billion

What it brings for India	What's at stake for India
Commits $100 billion investments and one million direct jobs over 15 years	Questions over monitoring of investments and job creation
Tariff concessions on 92.2% tariff lines covering 99.6% of India's exports	India has a huge trade deficit with EFTA due to high gold imports
Sensitive sectors such as dairy, soya, coal, pharmaceutical, medical devices, and select food products excluded	Large goods trade with Switzerland already under low tariffs
Mutual recognition agreement for several professions, deeper access to IT services

3

INDIA-OMAN COMPREHENSIVE ECONOMIC PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT

- ▶ Signed in December 2025, likely to be operationalised this year
- ▶ Bilateral trade at $10.61 billion

What it brings for India	What's at stake for India
India secures 100% duty-free market access covering 99.38% of exports by value	India has a huge trade deficit with Oman due to crude petroleum and products
Multiple tariff lines excluded to protect domestic sectors and sensitive value-chain industries
Oman to broaden and deepen market access commitments across 127 services sub-sectors
Indian companies to deploy more managerial and specialist staff to Oman

