

(From left): Sourav Bhowmick, GM-Sales, Radico Khaitan; Dinesh Bhatia, Group Chief Executive Officer, India Today Group; with Jalaj Kakkad, Director of CredAble, receiving the runner-up award in the 0-14 handicap category on behalf of Arjun Nohwar

Aditya Maheswari, receiving the Qatar Airways Closest to Pin (hole no. 6) on behalf of Sahil Vora; Bennet Stephens; and Alok Nair of Reliance Industries; Mihir Doshi, CEO-India of Credit Suisse Securities (India); and Shashi Kiran Shetty, Chairman of All-cargo Logistics, added prestige to the gathering. As the golfers patiently awaited their turn, the ideal weather only served to boost their passion for the game.

Play got underway around 8 am, and for the next few hours the participants squared off on the greens, competing in a friendly but intense way.

After a thrilling competition, Naseem Shaikh emerged victorious in the ladies category, successfully defending her crown against strong opponents. In the men's 0-14 handicap category, Aakash Sethi claimed the top spot with an impressive 42 points, leaving behind runner-up Arjun Nohwar, who tallied 40 points. There was also some serious competition in the men's 15-24 handicap category, and a back nine countback was needed to separate winner K. Balakrishnan and runner-up Nitin Agarwal.

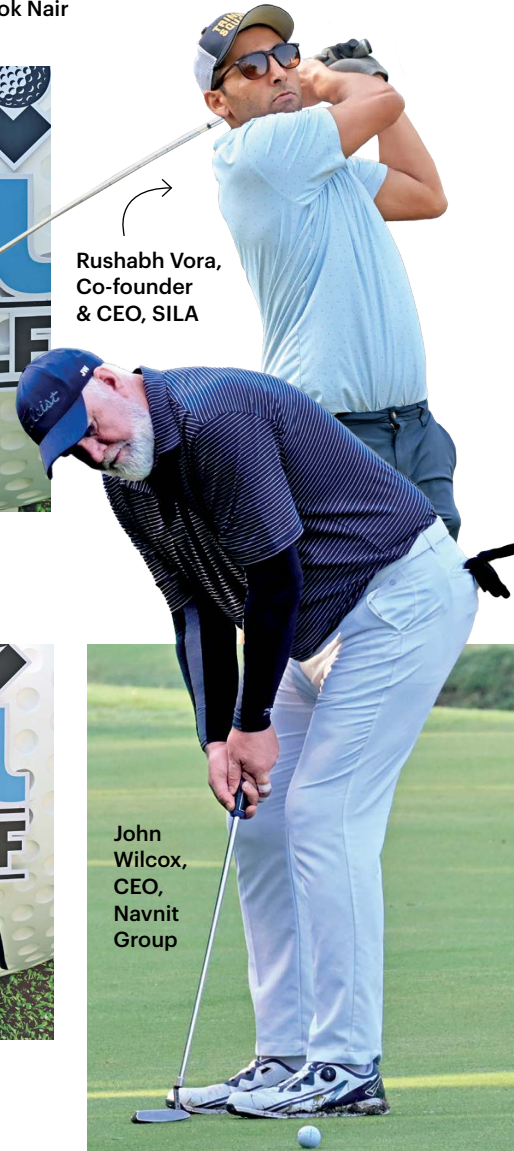

There were also some historic moments here, as Dev Bhat-tacharya, Executive President of Aditya Birla Group, achieved

V. Hariharan, winner of the BT Golf award for the Radico Straight Drive (hole no. 1), and Bennet Stephens

Dr Bharati Purker, a consulting physician, receiving the BT Golf winner award in the 15-24 handicap category on behalf of K. Balakrishnan; Alok Nair

Rushabh Vora, Co-founder & CEO, SILA

John Wilcox, CEO, Navnit Group