

VDAs Emerge as a New Asset Class: Indian Investors Diversify Their Portfolios with VDA

CoinDCX's mission remains simple: let our users concentrate on diversifying their portfolios in crypto while we enrich their investing experience and maintain safety of their assets, emphasizes Sumit Gupta, Co-Founder, CoinDCX.

Could you shed light on the renewed interest in the crypto market? What factors do you think are contributing to this discussion?

The renewed interest in the crypto market stems from the anticipation of a bull run and key developments like the SEC's approval of Bitcoin ETFs, and the upcoming Bitcoin Halving. These milestones are attracting both new and institutional investors, injecting smart capital into the market.

VDAs have emerged as a new asset class, prompting Indian investors to diversify their portfolios with VDA. Gradually, we
