

TEXTILES, GARMENTS & APPAREL

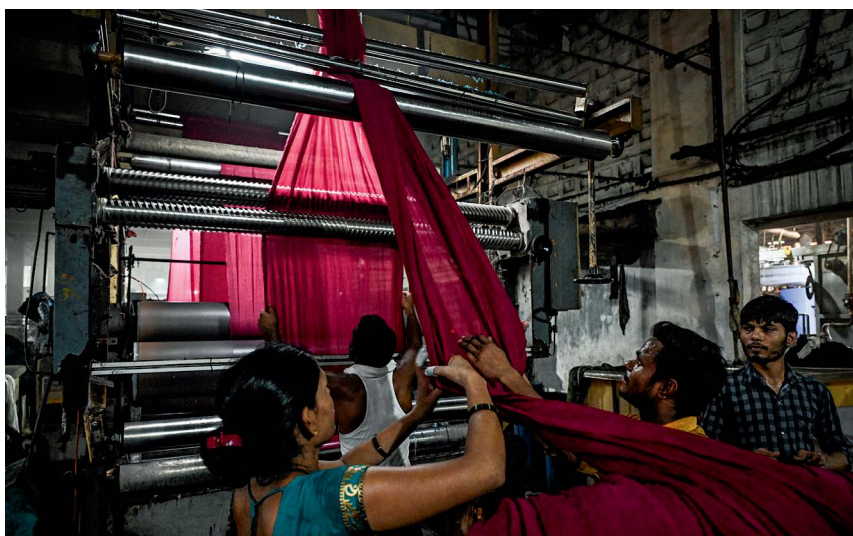

Gujarat has a flourishing textile sector that contributes not only to India's arts and crafts but also to the country's economy. Gujarat has been an important centre of textile production and trade, and is known worldwide as the 'Manchester of the East', 'Textile State of India' and 'Denim Capital of India'.

Sectoral Overview

- Largest denim producer in India.
- Well established Textile and Apparel Parks across Ahmedabad and Surat with presence across the Textile Value Chain.
- Upcoming large-scale PM Mega Integrated Textile Region and Apparel (PM MITRA) Park in Navsari.

Presence of dedicated Textile Research Institutes and Centres of Excellence:

- Ahmedabad Textile Industry's Research Association (ATIRA) in Ahmedabad.
- Man Made Textiles Research Association (MANTRA) in Surat.

Growth Drivers

- 2nd largest exporter of textiles and textile related articles.
- 50% share in India's manmade fiber production.
- 37% share in India's cotton produce.

- 25% share in India's technical textile output.

Investment Opportunities

- Technical Textiles
- Apparels & Garments

