

① (From left) Dayamay Tiwari, winner of the Radico Longest Drive (Hole 3) award; Pradipta Basu, Assistant VP-Marketing, Radico Khaitan

② Gajendra Naidu Dama, winner of Qatar Raffle – Return Ticket To Doha; and Bennet Stephens

③ Keerthana Rajeev, winner of the BT Golf award in the ladies category and Tejasvi Surya

④ Tejasvi Surya and Bennet Stephens

though most of the participants were familiar with the twists and turns of the course, the huge rock outcrop, through which the course winds its way around, provided for a testing round of golf.

As the luminaries from the Silicon City, including Nilanjan Roy, Chief Financial Officer of Infosys, Miles Jamburao, Vice President of SAP Labs India, and Sumeet Verma of Intel Corp, among others, took on each other at the greens, competition quickly heated up.

Finally, after hours of play, Keerthana Rajeev emerged as the winner of the BT Golf award in the ladies' categories, while Arvind Kumar and Putturaj B.N. won the award in the men's 0-14 and 15-24 handicap categories, respectively.

Amith J.U., Consultant
Radiologist,
Medax
Vijayashree
Hospital

Mamta
Nayak,
a golf
enthusiast