

Marico : Making A Difference

Amit Prakash - CHRO

At the heart of the company is a deep commitment to prioritizing and empowering its people, and this philosophy is reflected in their approach of fostering a culture that values the capabilities of its workforce. Foremost among it all is the sense of ownership and accountability which entails delegating significant responsibilities and entrusting members the autonomy to make decisions.

"Being recognized as a Kincentric Best employer is a testament to the culture of excellence, innovation, and inclusivity that we have cultivated at Marico. It reflects our commitment towards creating a workplace where our members feel valued, empowered, and motivated to achieve their best," says Amit Prakash, CHRO.

We maintain an open-door policy that encourages transparent communication across all levels of the organization. This transparency fosters a sense of belonging among employees, ensuring everyone feels heard and valued, Prakash adds.

Marico places a strong emphasis on continuous learning and professional development to ensure that members not only grow within their roles but also have pathways for career progression across, making it a nurturing ground for talent. The company encourages talent mobility across geographies to help them gain diverse experiences. This also helps bring together individuals from varied backgrounds, experiences, and skill sets.

"We consistently explore new ways to enhance member experiences, adopt cutting-edge tools and technologies for workplace efficiency, and implement best practices in HR to stay ahead of industry trends. The synergy between business goals and member development is crucial for us to ensure sustainable growth and competitiveness," says Prakash.

Some of the business priorities for Marico include continuously innovating to meet changing consumer preferences, including healthier options, sustainable products, and leveraging technology for better consumer experiences leading to increased market share and diversified revenue streams. This business opportunity is attained by cultivating a culture of innovation through cross-functional teams and a robust Innovation Council overseeing the entire innovation pipeline.

Implementing sustainable practices across the supply chain is another key priority which extends from sourcing to packaging, to reduce adverse impact to environment and meet consumer expectations towards eco-friendly products. Members of the Marico team extensively involve themselves in many sustainability initiatives including a wide range of community volunteering programs.

Mondelez India Foods Pvt. Ltd : Agility, Innovation and Resilience enshrined in the DNA

Serving sweetness all over India, this enterprise is committed to create moments of pure delight for millions around the globe. Emerging as a Kincentric Best Employer, Mondelez India proudly claims that their strength remains their passionate and engaged workforce. Their team, which they call the 'makers and bakers' displays unwavering commitment to excellence which is fueled by their culture of authenticity and collaboration.

As a multi-national organization operating across the globe, Mondelez has a plethora of offerings due to its perpetual focus on innovation. Every product goes through a very stringent process consistent with their global standards. Hence, the organization is very deliberate in its focus on fuelling innovation. They not only run global innovation programs but also have one of the best research and development facilities in Mumbai, India which helps them localize their product as per the unique demand in the Indian market. This kind of agility and innovation in addressing the needs of the customers is made possible due to the capability and resilience they have built in their teams.

They take pride in having a diverse team with a healthy representation of women. "In the frontline staff, we improved women participation in our workforce from 4% a year ago to 8% now with a renewed emphasis in attaining a gender balance, with one of our facilities - Sricity - achieving 50% gender diversity. At the leadership level, we have perfect 50-50 balance between men and women," stresses Nagina Singh, Senior Director & People Lead at Mondelez India.

Mondelez considers its people as its strength and focuses on building capability across levels through a strong learning and development roadmap. They are committed to equipping people with skills to excel in their roles. "Each one at Mondelez brings their full self and capability building is an ongoing process here to support them in their growth," says Singh.

The organization also helps its people find global career opportunities. A well-defined career management framework supports its people to reach the roles they aspire for. In addition to that, they have a well-crafted succession planning process to support having the right talent across levels. With ambitions of growth and keeping their vision for 2030 in mind, the team continues to work towards providing enablers like the right structure, technology and capability for harnessing power of artificial intelligence.

Nagina Singh - Senior Director & People Lead