

Tata AIA Life Insurance Company: Ensuring a Robust Insurance Landscape

Venky Iyer - MD & CEO
Kristyl Pais Bhesania - President & CHRO

Tata AIA's success and recognition as a Kincentric Best Employer for the 8th consecutive year can be attributed to several key factors. "Being named as Best Employer in India by Kincentric for 2023, eight years in a row, is indeed a matter of pride for us at Tata AIA. It is testimony to the continuous efforts of our HR and leadership teams to create a thriving, fikar-free and rewarding environment for our employees. This Award reinforces our commitment to our people-centric practices, empowering our people to achieve their aspirations and give their best and enable our consumers to be 'Har Waqt Ke Liye Taiyaar'", says Venky Iyer, MD & CEO - Tata AIA.

The organization prioritizes "Consumer Obsession" as a core value and implements initiatives under their 'Customer First' mission. This includes enhancing the entire customer lifecycle experience, emphasizing sales, service, and claims transparency. By consistently putting customers at the forefront, Tata AIA builds trust and loyalty among its customer base.

These efforts have yielded notable results, with a 59% surge in individual Weighted New Business Premium (IWNBP) income in FY23. The Company ranks among the top three private life insurers by IWNBP income. Its best-in-class persistency and claims settlement ratio reflect its unwavering dedication to customer satisfaction.

Putting a differentiated focus on its people, the organization engages them through various levers. "We recognize that people are our key asset, and we prioritize their welfare, development, and provide a sense of purpose. We provide an equitable, diverse, and inclusive environment, valuing each employee as an individual. We offer competitive compensation packages, comprehensive benefits, opportunities for career development through benchmark capability building initiatives and fostering a supportive and inclusive work culture. Additionally, we prioritize work-life balance, and promote employee well-being through our wellness programmes", says Kristyl Pais Bhesania, President & CHRO - Tata AIA.

This leading insurance company is committed to making a positive impact on society and the environment through CSR initiatives, aligning employees' values with the company's mission. By fostering a sense of purpose in their work, Tata AIA engages employees in giving back to society.

Their success as a Kincentric Best Employer for the eighth consecutive year can be attributed to their holistic approach to business, which prioritizes customer satisfaction, operational excellence, employee well-being, innovation, and corporate social responsibility.

Tata Communications: Connecting the World to A Bright Future

Amur Lakshminarayanan - Managing Director & CEO

Tata Communications, under the leadership of Amur Lakshminarayanan, has been awarded for its outstanding performance and best practices in several key areas. The company's journey towards excellence can be attributed to a combination of strategic initiatives, a people-centric approach, commitment to growth, and a strong focus on societal impact.

One of the core strengths of Tata Communications lies in its ability to foster a culture of growth and innovation. Lakshminarayanan emphasizes the importance of setting ambitious growth targets, believing that growth is the real oxygen that propels the company forward. By focusing on financial turnaround and investing in future growth opportunities, Tata Communications has demonstrated its commitment to creating an environment where employees can thrive and see new opportunities for advancement.

Moreover, the company's emphasis on talent development and global exposure sets it apart. Offering opportunities for employees to work across multiple countries and cultures not only enriches their experience but also aligns with Tata's commitment to diversity and inclusion. By investing in training and development programs, the company ensures that its workforce remains equipped with the necessary skills to drive innovation and adapt to changing market dynamics.

"I believe that for a company to thrive, it must prioritize growth. When a company sets ambitious goals for its expansion, employees recognize the potential for personal and professional advancement. Conversely, without a focus on growth, employees may feel stagnant. Therefore, we view growth as essential, akin to oxygen for sustaining our organization. We are currently on a promising trajectory towards achieving significant growth," says Amur Lakshminarayanan, Managing Director & CEO at Tata Communications.

Additionally, Tata Communications' dedication to corporate social responsibility (CSR) further strengthens its position as a socially responsible organization. Initiatives aimed at skill development, particularly for women and marginalized communities, highlight the company's commitment to fostering inclusive growth and empowering individuals from diverse backgrounds. Furthermore, its focus on environmental sustainability and societal impact underscores Tata Communications' broader mission of contributing positively to the communities it serves. By promoting a culture of mentorship, continuous improvement, and accountability, the organization ensures that every employee is aligned with its overarching goals and values.
