WHEN THE NAME is 'Bank of Maharashtra', it's natural to assume that the lender primarily operates in Maharashtra and the bulk of its branches are in the state, with a focus on Mumbai.

There was a time when the majority of the bank's business, up to 70%, originated in Maharashtra. However, the Pune-based lender, which emerged as the Best Mid-sized Indian Bank in the BT-KPMG Best Banks and NBFCs Survey 2022-23, has ensured over the years that the concentration risk has been handled effectively.

At one point, 712 out of 1,833 branches were located outside Maharashtra. Now, there are 1,260 branches out of a total of 2,401 outside Maharashtra, according to Asheesh Pandey, Executive Director, Bank of Maharashtra, and currently the acting head of the bank.
