

► Along with higher spending plans, Trump's tariff policy could fan higher inflation in the US and other countries

► India continues to face high inflationary pressures and economic challenges, which includes slowing urban demand

► While GDP growth is seen at close to 7% in FY25, policymakers are looking at ways to sustain growth in FY26