

THE GOOD LIFE

TRENDS | TECH TODAY

The Taste of India in a Glass

FROM ROYAL LIQUEURS TO DISTILLED MAHUA, INDIAN HERIT-AGE ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES ARE HAVING THEIR DAY IN THE SUN

BY SMITA TRIPATHI

I

In 1922, Jehangirji Behramji, one of six brothers, set up a distillery in Aswa in the coastal region of present-day Maharashtra to produce spirits from exotic fruits and flowers for the royal families of the region. A 102 years later, his great grandson, Hamavand Chinoy, is taking the family's legacy forward by launching two premium mahua spirit expressions—Six Brothers 1922 Resurrection and Six Brothers Small Batch (Original), as an ode to his great grandfather and his brothers. “Six Brothers 1922 Resurrection is India’s first luxury heritage spirit,” says Chinoy. It is a limited edition of 102 bottles (branded as Mahura), each priced at ₹1.02 lakh.

Bandra Born's
Kadak Nimbu Sharbat is a take on the classic
fresh lime soda
with kaffir lime and mahua

The Mahtinez from Bandra Born is a classic martini that uses mahua as the base spirit and is extremely popular

