T TAJ LANDS End in Mumbai on November 8, Business Today hosted the 21st edition of its Most Powerful Women in Business awards, where prominent female leaders from various sectors—from banking to pharma and entertainment—gathered to discuss the challenges and opportunities for women entrepreneurs in India. The event highlighted the increasing presence of women in managerial and entrepreneurial roles.

In a conversation moderated by Business Today Editor Siddharth Zarabi, several influential women shared their experiences of overcoming challenges in the workplace. Union Minister Piyush Goyal, who was the chief guest of the event, praised India's long-standing respect for women leaders.

The stalwarts of the industry also celebrated the glorious achievements of the women leaders.
