

Sustainability and Social Responsibility

India Circus has demonstrated a profound commitment to sustainability by collaborating with local artisans and incorporating eco-friendly materials into its products. This proactive approach not only supports traditional craftsmanship but also aligns with the growing demand for environmentally responsible products, thereby enhancing the brand's reputation and appeal.

Founders Vision

"India Circus is not just a brand; it's a revolution in how Indian heritage is consumed and perceived. Through our omnichannel approach, we ensure that our products are accessible to a diverse audience, allowing consumers from all walks of life to bring a slice of India's soul into their homes. We are committed to showcasing the beauty of Indian design to the world, while also promoting sustainability and social responsibility."

- Krsnaa Mehta, Founder, India Circus

Future Strategy

Krsnaa Mehta believes that even though the future is digital, it won't be able to overtake the need for human touch and experiences. With this, India Circus plans to open flagship stores in many cities as they offer immersive experiences and personalised services. With consumers leaning towards more environmentally friendly products, India Circus is working towards enhancing the future of sustainability with their new launches in the making, from sustainable copper and brass products as well as with already existing Bambooware products. India Circus plans to be a part of every celebration and festivities as well as corporate gifting, with their range of gifting products suited for the wide range of consumers. Along with gifting, India Circus plans collaborations with global brands into creating a blend of Indian aesthetic with modern styles taking over the world with their designs.

Conclusion

India Circus by Krsnaa Mehta has established itself as a formidable player in the luxury lifestyle market, offering a distinctive blend of cultural heritage and contemporary design excellence. By adopting a strategic market positioning, leveraging its competitive advantage, and demonstrating a commitment to sustainability and social responsibility, the brand is poised for continued success and growth in the global market. As a testament to the brand's unwavering dedication to excellence, India Circus is sure to remain a benchmark for luxury lifestyle brands in the years to come.
