

RECIPE FOR SUCCESS

| 63

Once dismissed as a risky bet, Zomato has defied expectations. After hitting rock bottom in July 2022, the company's share price has reached record highs, and it has stormed into the Top 50 on the BT500 list

BY PALAK AGARWAL
PHOTO BY BANDEEP SINGH

A GRAND FEAST

- ▶ Zomato's gross order value in the September quarter of FY25 for its B2C business stood at ₹17,670 crore, showing a 55% year-on-year growth
- ▶ The adjusted revenue of the company has shown 58% year-on-year growth, standing at ₹5,127 crore. In the previous quarter, the adjusted revenue was ₹4,520 crore
- ▶ Adjusted Ebitda in Q2 was ₹330 crore and continues to show improvement with an increase in food delivery margins. The quick commerce business reached break-even. It had turned Ebitda positive in March 2024