

PHOTO BY GETTY IMAGES

ON THE MEND

- ▶ GROWTH: Sun Pharma, Zydus Lifesciences, and Fortis Healthcare saw significant growth in market capitalisation due to rising global demand and R&D focus
- ▶ MIXED PERFORMANCE: Cipla and Divi's Laboratories faced challenges like regulatory issues and market positioning
- ▶ NEW PLAYERS: Granules India, Global Health, and Glenmark expanded market share
- ▶ STRUGGLES: Biocon and Aurobindo Pharma faced pricing pressures and regulatory hurdles despite growth
- ▶ OUTLOOK: Expectations of growth, with opportunities in generics and biosimilars

THE GROWTH PILL

- ▶ EXPORTS: India's pharma exports reached ₹2,31,165 crore in FY24, a YoY growth of 9.7%. This includes vaccines, generics, and biosimilars
- ▶ PROJECTIONS: Sector is expected to grow to ₹1,074,750 crore by 2030, fuelled by increasing healthcare needs and incomes
- ▶ R&D FOCUS: The biotech sector, aiming for a $300-billion bioeconomy by 2030, is a key focus for growth, in biosimilars, vaccines, and novel therapies
- ▶ EXPORTS LEADERSHIP: India is the largest supplier of vaccines, providing over 50% of the global demand
- ▶ OPPORTUNITIES: Rural healthcare growth, innovations in medical devices, government support to help sector