Gurugram-based fintech unicorn Oxyzo is revolutionising SME financing with its cash flow-aligned lending products and solutions for raw material financing

BY RIDDHIMA BHATNAGAR

S MALL AND MEDIUM enterprises (SMEs) have few dedicated institutions that they can turn to, especially in the private sector. But Gurugram-headquartered Oxyzo is a pioneer in this regard, offering cash flow-aligned lending products for buying key raw materials such as metals like steel, aluminium, copper, zinc, polymers, chemicals, and agro products (foodgrain and spices).

Started in 2018 by husband-wife duo Asish Mohapatra and Ruchi Kalra, Oxyzo Financial Services, the lending arm of B2B commerce unicorn OfBusiness, is a technol-
